

ICWQ Report 2007 – 2009

Organization of IAHS events/sessions by ICWQ members

- Organisation of JW3 on “Rural and urban water systems: Minimising adverse impacts of global change on water resource” (jointly with ICWRS and IAHS) at 8th IAHS Scientific Assembly & 37th IAHS Congress, Hyderabad, India, September 2009 (convener and co-convener);
- Participation in the organization of four other sessions: JS1, JS2, JS3 and HW5 at 8th IAHS Scientific Assembly & 37th IAHS Congress, Hyderabad, India, September 2009 (four ICWQ members as co-conveners);
- Co-chairing the Joint IAHR-IAHS Working Group on Climate Change Impacts on the Hydrological Cycle, Water Management and Engineering;
- Two ICWQ members took part in the Tison Award Judging Panel.

Organisation of other Water Quality-related conferences and workshops by ICWQ members

- 4 International Conferences (Boulder, Edinburgh, Kyoto);
- 8 International Workshops (Erfurt, Amsterdam, Potsdam, Norrköping, Prague, Vadodra);
- 2 International Symposia (Potsdam, Edinburgh).

Involvement in Water Quality-related projects and Working Groups

- 6 International projects (NeWater, PSI-connect, CCFD, Geoland2, ECOSUPPORT, JAXA);
- 22 National projects in UK, Sweden, Germany and India.

Publications by five ICWQ members

- 9 papers in IAHS red books;
- 39 papers in the ISI Journals;
- 8 book chapters;
- 17 publications in the conference Proceedings.

Other activities

- Supervision of 27 PhD students in UK, India, Germany and Sweden;
- Involvement in other organizations: Asia Pacific Association of Hydrology and Water Resources (APHW), Asia-Oceania Geophysics Society (AOGS), and International Environmental Modelling and Software Society (iEMSs);
- Involvement in NGOs: Centre for Natural Resources Management and All World Service to Mankind Association.