

IAHS Activities Report, July 2013 - June 2015

Liliang Ren, IAHS Vice President

for IAHS Bureau meeting, Prague, Czech, 22 June 2015

- Participation in the Dooge-Nash International Symposium sponsored by IAHS in Dublin, April 24-25, 2014, making an oral presentation during Technical Session #1: Sustainability and Society, and the manuscript, entitled ‘Evolution of Hydrological Sciences from Dimensions of Object, Discipline and Methodology’, having been published in proceedings.
- Participation in the 6th International Symposium on Integrated Water Resources Management sponsored by ICWRS-IAHS and EGU, held in Bologna, Italy, June 4-6, 2014, having an oral presentation during Session #1.3, and my paper, entitled ‘Where does blue water go in semi-arid area of northern China under changing environments?’, being published in IAHS Publ. no. 364.
- As a member of the Local Organizing Committee for the 4th iLEAPS Science Conference with the topic on ‘Terrestrial ecosystems, atmosphere and people in the Earth system’, May 12-16, 2014, Nanjing, China, inviting EGU-President Guenter Bloeschl and IAHS-President Hubert Savenije to deliver a keynote lecture, and as a convener, chairing the Session S8: Response Mechanisms of Hydrological Processes under Changing Environment, so as to build a bridge between iLEAPS and IAHS-initiated Panta Rhei Science Decade. [iLEAPS refers to integrated Land Ecosystem - Atmospheric Processes Study, a core project of IGBP/Future Earth]