Subject: World Meteorological Organization (WMO) Global Conference on
"Prosperity through hydrological services", Geneva, 7-9 May 2018

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have the pleasure to inform you that WMO is hosting the Global Conference on "Prosperity through hydrological services" in Geneva, from 7 to 9 May 2018. This conference is organized within the UN Decade "Water for Sustainable Development"

The Conference is being co-organized by WMO and various key partners to foster collaboration for improved, tailored and affordable hydrological services across sectors, scales and actors and raise the visibility and recognition of socio-economic benefits emerging from such services, which meet the needs of policy and decision-makers. More information about the conference, including the programme and logistical details is available at the Conference website: hydroconference.wmo.int

Please note that the Conference will be held in English.

Through this letter, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the Conference.

Should you be interested to attend, I would kindly ask that you fill the pre-registration form available at the Conference website.

I am certain that your participation will facilitate the success of this important international event and contribute to the cooperation for improving hydrological services.

Yours faithfully,

(E. Manaenkova)
for the Secretary-General

To: The Hydrological community

Please note that invitations to the Conference have been sent to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Member States of WMO, to the Ministries responsible of water resources, meteorology, disaster risk reduction, finance, development aid, to the Permanent Representatives of Member States with WMO, to their Hydrological Advisers, and to experts of the WMO Commission for Hydrology.
