

Casablanca the 05th of July 2016

To Mr. President

Object : International water exhibition
11 to 13 May 2017 Casablanca
www.eauexpo.ma

“Protecting the environment is expensive, doing nothing is much more expensive”

An exhibition constantly evolving

After the great success of the last edition which benefited the High patronage of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, the Moroccan Association for Drinking Water and Sanitation AMEPA, strength of its experience, organizes the 4th edition of the international water exhibition from 11 to 13 May 2017 in Casablanca under the theme: sustainable access to Water and Sanitation for all.

A new meeting opportunity from stakeholders and international specialists in a space of reflection and business development.

In the program : An exhibition of products and materials that will bring together a hundred companies, conferences and lively scientific workshops by national and international experts of high level of B to B meetings and dams Technical visits and treatment plants water.

More than a hundred Contractors and decision makers from Arab and African countries will be formally invited to this event.

To this end, we would be delighted establish a development partnership between your honorable Institution / AMEPA / MEDCOM and invite all your members to participate as exhibitors at the International Exhibition of Water 2017, within an personalized pavilion with turnkey the best possible terms.

Of the same we will reserve an intervention in the scientific and technical program of the exhibition.

We send you with useful information and the participation folder and remain at your disposal for any further information.

Pending materialize this opportunity, please accept, Sir, our distinguished greetings.

Fouzia BELMRAH
Directeur Général
MEDCOM

Informations & Réservation

